

Peace and Steadfastness

A sample prayer for The Prayer Group

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

John 14:27

Lord Jesus Christ,

We come before you as one body, scattered across many places but gathered in your name. Quiet our hearts where they have become restless, and steady us where the week has made us weary.

Teach us to receive the peace you give, not as something fragile or temporary, but as a gift rooted in your presence. Help us carry that peace into our homes, our work, our families, and the hidden places where we need you most.

Today we remember every person in this prayer circle. Bless each name, each household, each burden, and each hope. Where there is grief, bring comfort. Where there is anxiety, bring calm. Where there is confusion, bring wisdom. Where there is loneliness, bring the assurance that no one is forgotten before you.

Make us faithful in prayer, gentle in spirit, and attentive to your voice. Unite us in love as we pray this week, trusting that you are near.

Amen.
